

September 14, 1999

To: Ted Kaczynski

Dear Ted,

Since my handwriting may be difficult to read, I will keep this note brief.

It was nice to hear the sound of your voice today. I will be responding to all of your letters shortly. Don't worry about the two journal series (V + VI) - your changes will be applied as soon as they come in (i.e., before we go to press.

So, here I stop. I will be able to breathe easier after the weekend, and will write to you then.

Do well.

Fondly,
Dean.